IN 31ST YEAR—EVERY WEEK SINCE 1905.

HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1935.

NUMBER 2

THIS IS SHOW WEEK IN HAMLIN

Hamlin people have somewhere to go this week, if we call shows, a place to go.

Besides the usual attractive picture shows and the two famous bank nights, there has been a tent show in town all the week.

J. Doug Morgan and Neale Helvey started their second engagement here on Monday night and had planned to remain only four nights, but evidently Hamlin exceeded their expectations and therefore they will fill the entire week here, making Friday night and Saturday night their banner performances, with a Saturday afternoon matinee to make up good measure. The musical feature of Neale Helvey's presentations are up to the highest standards, as well as the actors in the plays.

The big day of the week is this Friday as the Harley Sadler-Bailey Bros. Circus comes to town for two performances. It's show week in Hamlin, and it seems that all of them get plenty of customers, and that there is no such things as a "depression" any more in Hamlin town.

A FREE SHOW NEXT TUESDAY MORNING AND P. M.

To climax the show days in Hamlin there is to be a FREE show at the Grammar school building about 11:15 Tuesday morning. It is an electrical map showing of the history of Texas. Said to be very entertaining and exceedingly educational.

This is a historical lecture sponsored by the Hamlin Rotary Club and it is not only free for the children of the community but for everyone who cares to attend—THERE WILL BE TWO FREE SHOWS—in the afternoon, Tuesday, 3:15 at the High

NEW PASTOR COMES TO CHURCH OF CHRIST

This week, the Church of Christ has a new pastor, in the arrival of Minister Woodie Holden, of Glade-water, Texas.

Mr. Holden was a guest at the Rotary Club Wednesday and had the pleasure of meeting a large number of Hamlin citizens, and he at once impressed himself on Hamlin as a young minister of ability and energy. He and his wife are already feeling much at home. He has been reminded that coming from one oil town to "another" makes the change not so marked.

The members of the church have been working for some time without a regular pastor and the coming of their new minister will boost all departments of the church work.

W. D. Switzer was called to Blanket, Brown Co., Texas, on Thursday of last week by the sudden death of his brother, J. G. Switzer, age 50 years. He had a heart attack while on the street in Blanket.

W. N. Temple, who has been in Dawson County for several months looking after his farming interests near Lamesa, was here Thursday and Friday of last week to visit his daughters, Miss Eleanor Temple and Mrs. Hibbs Milsap. He was accompanied by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Earl Temple, of Lamesa.

School Auditorium, this same lecture and showing will be presented to the pupils and citizens of Hamlin—no charge. Be there, tell your neighbors, and come see one of the most unique Electrical Maps, with 146 lights, and representing perhaps all the colors of the rainbow. Again we repeat—it's FREE.

Hamlin Business Will be Closed Monday For Armistice Day

It is the custom of Hamlin people to observe the great day of days, the one called "Armistice Day," the last day of the terrible World War. It was on that eventful day, not only Hamlin, but the entire, war-weary world, went drunk with joy.

It was not long after that eventful day till the "boys" began to return to their homes, and all that was dear to them—it was not for all to return, for some rested out of reach of blast of merriment and joy, on the War-torn fields of a distant land—to them on this Armistice Day, let's rededicate ourselves to be a better

American, and to their living comrades, who are yet mistified by the horrible "dream" of carnage, let's stop and salute them in humble recognition of what they offered to "make the world safe for Democracy," for indeed, they may yet live to realize that they sacrificed and suffered not in vain. Men of America, who offered ALL, we salute you.

Yes, Hamlin people will take off from their usual duties Monday, like they did in 1918, so the Herald is informed by the Secretary of the Retail Merchants Association, after his canvass of the business section.

ATTEND BAPTIST CONVENTION

Rev. and Mrs. J. Henry Littleton and Mrs. John T. Day left Monday morning for Houston where they will attend the Texas Baptist General Convention. While in Houston Mrs. Day will visit her sister, Mrs. J. C. Ellis.

It seems that no one has thought of a relief bill for taxpayers.

TO OUR FRIENDS:

With our hearts filled with gratitude our minds search and fail to find adequate words to express our appreciation for the many kindnesses shown us in so many ways during the long illness and death of our husband, father and brother. Always we will cherish in our hearts each one who so loyally stood by us. Especially do we thank Messrs. Bob and Clinton Barrow for their thoughtfulness to us and the tender care given our loved one.

Truly, Hamlin has some of the kindest hearts in the world.

INFANT DIED

The little six day old Frankie Janett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Spoonemore, of near Neinda, died early last Saturday morning.

This family had recently moved into the community. Mr. Spoonemore is a brother of Mrs. J. J. Wilmon of that community.

The burial was in the Neinda Cemetery.

ARE YOU HUNGRY?

If so you can get candy, pies and cakes at the Nazarene Junior Sunday School Booth, Saturday, at the corner of Day Hardware Store.

W. R. Zinn of Seymour, is in Hamlin as the local Gas Service Manager. In introducing Zinn, the other day, Bill Braymer, District Mgr. of Stamford, and recently of Hamlin, says, "Meet Bill Zinn, his initials are W. R., but just call him Bill." And Braymer also remarked, "Bill did not bring his wife to Hamlin, for he hasn't got one." So that's Bill Zinn's introduction. Call for Zinn if you have "gas trouble."

Carol Benson, of Simmons University and Miss Maxine Benson, a nurse, in Abilene, came over Saturday to make a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Benson, who had a birthday Sunday.

Responsibility of Government Is Not Limited to Gathering Up Wreckage After Economic Collapse

"There never was a time in the history of this country when an examination of the fundamental principles, on the basis of which our public affairs are conducted, was more important," said President Roosevelt in a message to the forum on current affairs of the New York Herald Tribune, "Great and significant questions face us on all sides. We do well to take counsel with respect to these by a fair public presentation of varying points of view."

"This is particularly true with respect to the women of America. Their interest in these great questions is rooted deep in the conditions of their own lives. When our economic system fails to sustain an adequate standard of life, it is the women who face the most poignant privation."

"A falling standard in the incomes of average Americans, the dragging of innocent children from the homes into factories, the problems of delinquency that arise from social conditions, the destruction of workers' morale by unemployment, the effects of poverty and dependency in old age, widespread preventable diseases, unnecessary industrial warfare and, most of all, that failure of reason which permits and wages modern war—all of these challenging factors in modern society throw up the women of the nation a material and spiritual burden of the greatest significance."

"That is why the women of America are turning with intense earnestness to measures which are aimed at eliminating or alleviating the effects of these imperfections of our society. They recognize, as all reasonable people must recognize, that government was not instituted to serve merely as a cold public instrument to be called into use after irreparable damage has been done."

"If we limit government to the functions of merely punishing the criminal after crimes has been committed, of gathering up the wreckage of society after the devastation of an economic collapse, or of fighting a war that reason might have prevented, then government fails to satisfy those urgent human purposes which, in essence, gave it its beginning and provide its present justification. Modern government has become an instrument through which citizens may apply their reasoned methods of prevention in addition to methods of correction."

"Government can be no more than the collective wisdom of its citizens. The duty of citizens is to increase this collective wisdom by common counsel, by the discovery and consideration of facts relating to the common life, and by the discouragement of those who for selfish ends or through careless speech distort facts and disseminate untruth."

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morgan and son, Gerald, returned Sunday from the Rio Grande Valley where they spent a few days enjoying the beauties of Texas Southern garden. They were accompanied on the trip by Mr. Morgan's nephew, Mr. Dubose, of Plainview.

SINGING

This Sunday afternoon at 2:30 P. M. there will be singing at the Nazarene church. Everyone interested in singing is urged to be present. If enough interest is shown we will organize the class and sing once a month; so, if interested, be sure and be present.

MARTIN WESTBROOK.

LITTLE LIGHTS ON LIVING

By MARIA LEONARDI
WHAT PLAY CAN DO

PLAY is one of the four builders of life. The other three are work, love and religion. Nations have risen like the Greeks and fallen like the Romans through their play. Play has not been given serious enough attention by modern parents, as a factor in their children's physical, intellectual and moral development. Play time has been considered a tag end usually—"run away and play" when there is nothing else to do.

Everything that functions has equal capacities for both good and evil. Food, medicine, exercise and even religion, with the fanatic can change virtue to vice. Progress of the race comes from directing all these functions properly into positive channels. When this does not occur the individual and nation alike may be retarded in its growth for betterment, or still worse may be actually irrevocably harmed. Parents probably seldom think of play and its effects on their children in such serious philosophical terms, and yet play and recreational hours have the power to make or mar young life.

Play should be part of an educationally planned program for children. Each child should be studied by the parents and helped to succeed in at least one kind of sport, or should be furthered in one hobby, whether it be making some kind of toy or collecting insects or stones. These creative loves in children should be hunted out and fostered by parents. This gives to children early in life a sense of achievement which later may grow into a habit of success.

Good sportsmanship not only implies physical skill, but also mental and moral skill, as it takes courage to be a good loser and sometimes more courage to play fair.

Planned play as an educational program will take time, effort and sacrifice on the parents' part, but in the end it brings the largest dividend of character. Parents are sometimes unwilling to give as much of their own pleasure time to play with their children, as such a play program demands. As for instance, a movie manager of one of the large theaters in Chicago told me recently, that in his opinion, the movies have become the modern nurse maids for the children of the rich and poor alike. Cars from Cadillacs to "Tin Lizzies" drive up and discharge their small occupants each night regardless of the sex picture shown, and the parents drive nonchalantly away. In two or three hours these carefree parents return to take their children home. Some parents a few years hence will wonder why their children are different from their neighbors' children.

METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday will be the closing day of another busy year. It might be of interest to the membership to have a brief summary of the progress made in membership, and a few other items, during the year. We shall give this information just preceding the eleven o'clock service.

Other services of the day are the Sunday 9:45 A. M., to come in at 9:50 will mean that you are late. Epworth Leagues meet at 6:45 and evening service 7:30.

There will be no preaching services Sunday, Nov. 17th, but the Sunday School and Leagues will meet as usual. There will be someone in charge of the Wednesday 7:30 prayer meeting.

The appointments will be read on the night of Sunday, Nov. 17th, about 9:00 P. M. They are usually broadcast and it might be of interest to tune in to Amarillo, Texas, as that will doubtless be the station through which they are broadcast. Information concerning appointments before that time cannot be authentic.

Since Monday is Armistice Day, therefore a holiday, it will be appreciated very much if the business interests can be taken care of not later than Sunday, earlier than that will certainly be better.

It has been a pleasure to serve the Methodist people of Hamlin and vicinity as pastor and our living in this community has afforded us the opportunity of making many friends in other churches as well as among the citizens in general. Should we be returned, it will be a delight. Be on hand Sunday and let's close the year by completing the task.

WEEK OF PRAYER WAS OBSERVED AT

METHODIST CHURCH

An all day meeting which was held Monday by the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church opened the annual week of prayer, and included a business session in which the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Tom Teague, Vice-Pres., Mrs. Clinton Barrow, Secretary, Miss Eleanor Temple, Cor. Sec., Mrs. G. R. Bennett; Superintendents: Study, Miss Lulan Vaughan Local Work, Mrs. Moody, Publicity, Mrs. Turner Bynum, Christian Social Relations, Mrs. D. O. Sauls, Supplies, Mrs. J. E. Bury, Childrens Work, Mrs. Jim Hudson, Spiritual Cultivation, Mrs. H. A. Longino, and Treasurer, Mrs. Ray Willingham.

Mrs. Longino directed the morning program and was assisted by Mmes. Whitlock, E. M. Wilson, J. F. Taylor, Tom Teague, Bill Rountree, D. O. Sauls, J. E. Bury, Ed Bailey, Roy Garner, Ray Willingham, and Miss Lulan Vaughan.

At the noon hour a covered dish luncheon was served after which the program of music and prayer was continued. Those giving parts were Miss Temple, Mmes. R. B. Wiar, Turner Bynum, W. S. Pike, J. E. Bury, Dick Low, Roy Garner, Paul Cain, C. W. Griggs, Clinton Barrow, Otis Hopper and M. T. Hudson.

Mrs. E. Clyde Smith, District Secretary, and Mrs. P. H. Gates, of Merkel, were guest for the day and both brought interesting messages. Other guests were Mmes. D. D. Harden, W. H. Gilbert, C. G. Green, George Bender, D. J. Payne and Miss Lula Fletcher.

THRIFT DEFINED

Thrift is saving a dime by shining your own shoes. It is sending a telegram only when somebody is dead. It is having the old dress dyed a different color and brightening it up with a girdle of contrasting shade. It is buying shoes that were the style last year.

It is resisting the temptation to have somebody clean your motor car and doing it yourself. It is using one match to light four candles. It is having the old felt cleaned and re-blocked and getting your wife to take the spots off your neckties so that they will do until Christmas.

It is waiting for movies to reach the second-run houses. It is turning out all the electric lights except those that are being used. It is having one kind of soap for the family and another kind of soap for guests. It is buying tooth paste by the gross and making a toothbrush last a year. It is writing one letter to Aunt Susie and having the other members of the family add postscripts.

It is skimming the cream for coffee and cereal off the top of the milk bottle. It is getting books from the public library and rushing them back before two weeks is up. It is waiting until you get into town from the suburbs and asking a friend if you can use her telephone for a few calls.

Thrift is, in short, watching the pennies so carefully that you are enabled to live within your income with a little to spare and thus can afford such luxuries as taxes, charities, miscellaneous contributions and investments that do not turn out so well.—Baltimore Evening Sun.

Dr. and Mrs. Turner Bynum and Attorney and Mrs. Maurice Smith went to Dallas Saturday to see the football game between Texas University and Southern Methodist University.

Laxative combination folks know is trustworthy

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Theodor's Black-Draught has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draught for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they outgrow their childish love of sweets. Mrs. O. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Theodor's Black-Draught (powder) about thirteen years, taking it for biliousness. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I wanted a good, reliable laxative for my children. I have found Syrup of Black-Draught to be just that."

LATIN CLUB

Latin in High School is taking a lead. Before now other languages have had clubs, but this is the first of its kind ever had in Hamlin. The club had their first meeting Monday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.

There are about 25 members in all, now taking Latin, but the club will be open to those who have had Latin and wish to join. Mr. Cox is leader and director. Our officers are:

President—Carl Smith
Vice-Pres.—Lenore Longino,
Secretary—Mary Dell Parks,
Reporter—Lila Belle Moore

At present we haven't made plans to meet every week but only twice a month. We will have programs chosen or planned by our program committee, which is our Vice President, with the help of Mattie Wilkinson and Estaline Richardson.

Socials will be given and we will have fun and at the same time be acquiring helpful things about Latin.

Watch for more reports about the Latin Club and you will watch it prosper.

DECLARE WAR ON TERMITES

TERMINIX COMPANY OPENS OFFICE IN HAMLIN AT ROCKWELL LUMBER COMPANY

A. B. Richards, Sales Manager for the Terminix Company of West Texas, with offices in the Milam Building, San Antonio, announced the opening of an office in Hamlin through the co-operation of the Rockwell Brothers Lumber Company and its Manager, J. H. Stephenson, Jr. Inspection for Termites will be made of any buildings or homes in the City if the owners will call Mr. Stephenson. Richards announced there would be no charge for this service, and in the event Termites are found, he will explain in detail the Bruce-Terminix Service.

Mr. Richards explained that "successful" Termite control can not be accomplished by amateurs. A heavy investment over years of experimentation and scientific research have placed the Terminix Companies throughout the United States in the position of America's foremost Termite Control Agencies by the use of Terminix, manufactured by E. L. Bruce Company of Memphis, Tennessee, and applied under its supervision and guarantee. Mr. Richards pointed out that the Terminix Service is an exclusive process, which is applied in a scientific manner with modern equipment by the use of devices which impregnate the inside of timbers at certain necessary points underneath the property with a hydrostatic pressure of 120 lbs. In this manner, the inside of the wood is impregnated instead of the outside. Because of the fact that Termites eat the inside of timbers, Terminix treated wood, therefore, is immune to Termites. E. L. Bruce Company perfected this system after experimenting by spraying and brushing timbers on the outside, only to find that the Termites would proceed with their destruction inside of the timber. In addition to treating the timbers at certain points, necessary portions of the ground underneath the buildings are also treated with Terminix, which forms a crystallization, giving much longer protection by not being an evaporating chemical.

The oldest properties treated by E. L. Bruce Company eight years ago are completely free of Termites, and regular semi-annual re-inspections are being made of these properties in order to ascertain the length of time that Terminix treated properties will remain clear of Termites. Mr. Richards pointed out that they are treating several of Hamlin's finest homes, which were found to be heavily infested with Termites and considerable damage had occurred. (Adv.)

THINK OF THIS

How does business compare with a year ago? It depends on where you live—but for the majority of people, it is better.

In all but six states of the union September business activity was greater than it was a year before, according to the U. S. News. In three of those states—New York, Virginia, and Louisiana—it was worse. In the other three—Nevada, North Carolina and Texas—it was unchanged.

Throughout the country, reports show that improvement is continuing, and at an accelerating rate, in almost every industry.

The farm cooperatives have passed out of the experimental stage. They have become as essential to modern agriculture as the plow.

They have demonstrated that only through cooperation can supply be adjusted to demand—that only through cooperation can the farmer obtain a fairer share of the final selling price of what he produces—that only through cooperation can scientific farming be extended to millions of farms, making smaller acreage produce better, more profitable crops.

The establishment of the first co-operative marked one of the greatest days since the dawn of farm history—though few realized it at the time. The co-operative ideal is the most dominant characteristic of farm activity today.

During recent years, the American public has become accustomed to astronomical statistics—especially in the field of government spending. The days when a million dollars was an impressive sum seem to be over, at least temporarily—it takes at least ten figures to elicit much in the way of public interest nowadays.

Even so, here is a fact that should command the earnest and thoughtful attention of us all. Federal government expenditures for a little over three months of the current fiscal year passed the $2,000,000,000 mark—breaking all previous records in the country's peacetime history, according to a New York Times article based on Treasury reports.

Every nickel of that $2,000,000,

000 either came out of our pockets—or must come out of them in the future, when the deficit must be realistically faced. Every nickel of it comes out of the salaries of workmen, the slim profits of industry, the meagre returns paid investors. Billions that could otherwise be used to provide additional employment or raise wages, to build factories, to expand old industries and initiate new ones, go to the tax collector.

Two billion dollars would create 500,000 four-thousand-dollar homes. It would employ 1,666,666 men for a year at wages of $100 per month. It would build 20,000 one-hundred-thousand-dollar factories which could produce necessities and luxuries, up purchasing power, and provide jobs. If it were simply divided equally, it would give every man, woman and child in this country $16.

Those illustrations give an idea of the almost inconceivable rate at which a single governmental unit is spending the people's money. And remember—that $2,000,000,000 represents but three months' spending. State and local governments are equally prodigal. Is it any wonder that authority after authority says that the tax reduction would give the greatest possible spur to recovery?

It is true the government has spent a huge sum of money the past few years, and will continue for years to come. BUT when in war expenditures are expected—the government realizes it is in WAR but many people do not.

Better spend as we have than to spend for killing—burning—sinking—and a thousand other ways. Spending as a government does not hurt. But borrowing from the over-rich and having to pay back DOES hurt because it mires us deeper.

The cost of food is the largest single item in the average family budget. And, the lower the total family income, the higher becomes the proportion needed for food.

An sound means of reducing retail food prices, thus liberating money for other purposes, is obviously in the interest of the entire country.

It is in the interest of the consumer who, if his food costs him less, will have more to spend for clothes, amusements, a thousand luxuries and necessities.

It is in the interest of the producer, who has a great deal to gain from cutting the spread between the wholesale and retail price of farm products. If foods are cheaper, the consuming market is automatically increased. More quality foods are bought. Home truck gardeners produce less, and turn to commercial sources of supply.

It is in the interest of every industry, which will receive its share of the money liberated. The man who cuts his food budget, for example, may use a month's savings to purchase a pair of shoes. Workers are employed—transport systems receive more business—tax payments rise—dividends are earned by stockholders—advertising budgets are increased. And so it goes, all along the industrial line.

Much progress has already been made in reducing the spread between wholesale and retail food prices by doing away with needless overhead and middleman costs. Much remains to be done, and progressive food retailers are working on the problem. Today, with food prices tending to rise much faster than the average income, that work becomes constantly more vital to the public welfare.

Don't let your head be a sepulchre for wrong thoughts.

Today you can use a winter oil which builds itself right into the "innards" of your engine. That is, a certain portion of Conoco Germ Processed Oil really forms a BOND with metals, and stays on continuous duty where all the worst friction used to come.

This uncanny action, created by the patented Conoco Germ Process, automatically wipes out the costliest winter wear...

"Dry," unlubricated, wracking starts? ... Not with the oil that's Germ Processed to stay up on the job every minute, every hour, every day that you park—"whatever the weather"... Not when Germ Processed Oil has become a part of all metal surfaces... Not with the Hidden Quart, which has enabled many an engine to run with the crankcase absolutely empty—in verified show-down tests.

And this same patented Germ Process means extra protection not only for the conventional babbitt bearings, but for the newest bearings—whether copper-lead, high-lead or cadmium-alloy. Germ Processing also creates the high-durability oil film... hence a light, free-flowing winter oil that's tougher too, for the toughest going of all the year. You and your Conoco man can make this whole Winter "act gentle" to your motor, beginning today. Drive in.

World-wide Survey of Leprosy

Leonard Wood Memorial Studies
Spread of Disease

History's oldest, most feared, most mysterious disease is emerging from its 3,000 years of traditional horror and sin. No longer are lepers turned into exile, defiled as unclean, living ghosts shunned by friends and relatives. Under the Leonard Wood Memorial has been launched a world-wide survey of leprosy, says The Literary Digest. Not until 1848 did the pioneer Norwegian leprologists, Daniel Cornelius Danielssen and Carl Willem Boeck, write the first comprehensive description of leprosy. In 1873 Arneur Hansen, Danielssen's son-in-law and his successor in Leprosy work in Norway, discovered what he thought to be the germ of leprosy.

Father Damien

In 1873 also Father Damien—Joseph de Veuster—a Belgian missionary, voluntarily went among the lepers deported to Molokai Island by the Hawaiian Government. Partly by himself and partly by the Government's aid he improved their water-supply, dwellings and food and brought the needs of the leper before the eyes of the world. Robert Louis Stevenson came to his aid and defense in "An Open Letter to the Rev. Dr. Hyde," written in 1890.

Father Damien himself died of leprosy in 1889, but his successor, Brother Joseph Dutton, proved that one could deal with leprosy without contracting the disease. He died four years ago of old age and was succeeded by the Rev. Peter Morgeval.

From Molokai the work has spread world-wide. A Scotsman, Welleley C. Bailey, founded The Mission for Lepers, a trail blazer for sixty years in the relief and eradication of leprosy. With the American Mission to Lepers, the two organizations work as a single world-wide unit aiding lepers.

More important still, bacteriologists have turned their attention recently to leprosy, voluntarily exiling themselves in leper colonies. In 1922, Doctor Herbert Windsor Wade, handsome, brilliant, militant, went to the Cullion leper colony. With this best known of the researchers in leprosy went his wife, Dorothy Paul Wade, daughter of a socially prominent New Orleans family, "the Flowering Nightingale of the lepers."

Leonard Wood Memorial Returning to the United States in 1925 Mrs. Wade appealed for funds to carry on research. Out of this grew the Leonard Wood Memorial, for the Eradication of Leprosy founded in the memory of the one-time Governor General of the Philippines. The world's largest leprosanarium, Cullion, and that at Cebu, both in the Philippines, are maintained by the foundation.

But the Memorial has recently entered on a new phase: a world-wide survey to discover how leprosy spreads. Leprosy, despite past progress, literally walks the earth. In South America, Mexico, Central America, the West Indies and the Eastern Hemisphere it is present and extends as far north as Iceland and as far south as Australia. There are 1000 lepers in the United States, of whom about 400 are segregated. About 50 walk the streets of New York. In all 3,000,000 lepers live throughout the world with only 50,000 receiving treatment.

Leprosy cannot be classed as incurable: 2,500 have been discharged from the Cullion leprosanarium in the last ten years and 30 per cent of the 350 lepers at Cullion are dismissed yearly as "cured" cases. Heading the world-survey as Chairman of the Leonard Wood Memorial's medical board is Dr. Hans Zinsser, famous as a researcher in typhus and as author of "Rats, Lice and History."

The British gallon is 20 per cent greater in volume than the United States gallon.

First English Bible

The 400th anniversary of the first complete printed English Bible is now being celebrated throughout the English-speaking world, reports The Literary Digest.

It was about 1527 that Miles Coverdale wrote to his friend, Thomas Cromwell, "I begyne to taste of Holy Schryptures." In 1535 he saw the printing of the Bible which he had translated "out of Douche (German) and Latyn into Englyshe."

Knowing less Greek and Hebrew than William Tyndale, translator of the New Testament, Coverdale was acquainted with German and Latin and had a smattering of French. His translation was probably done at Antwerp and printed by Christopher Froben, famous Zurich printer. Of Coverdale and his Bible, H. W. Hoare said in "The Evolution of the English Bible": "Difficult and retiring in disposition, of delicate susceptibility, literary dexterity and resource, with a wonderful ear for cadence and rhythm, it is to Coverdale we owe so much of the beautiful music which seems to well up out of the perennial springs of our Authorized Version."

You'll notice, too, that it's the angel foods that win the most enthusiastic praise at socials, suppers—cake sales everywhere. This angel food cake made with cocoa, is a novelty that should enrich the repertory of every woman who takes pride in her cakes.

Chocolate Angel Food Cake
3/4 cup sifted cake flour, 4 tablespoons cocoa, 1 1/4 cups egg whites, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon cream of tartar, 1 1/4 cups sifted granulated sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Sift flour once, measure, add cocoa, and sift four more times. Beat egg whites and salt with flat wire whisk. When foamy, add cream of tartar and continue beating until eggs are stiff enough to hold up in peaks, but not dry. Fold in sugar carefully, 2 tablespoons at a time, until all is used. Fold in vanilla. Then sift small amount of flour over mixture and fold in carefully; continue until all is used. Turn batter into ungreased angel food pan and bake in slow oven at least 1 hour. Begin at 275° F. and after 30 minutes, increase heat slightly (325° F.) and bake 30 minutes longer. Remove from oven and invert pan 1 hour, or until cold.

SNOW all summer. To me, it's an old-fashioned flower that blows in waves over all my garden—and an old-time desert—perfect to serve on a warmish evening. Snow Pudding with a modern touch of coconut—cool, frothy whiteness, piled high in a clear glass bowl, with a generous pitcher full of well-chilled custard on the side.

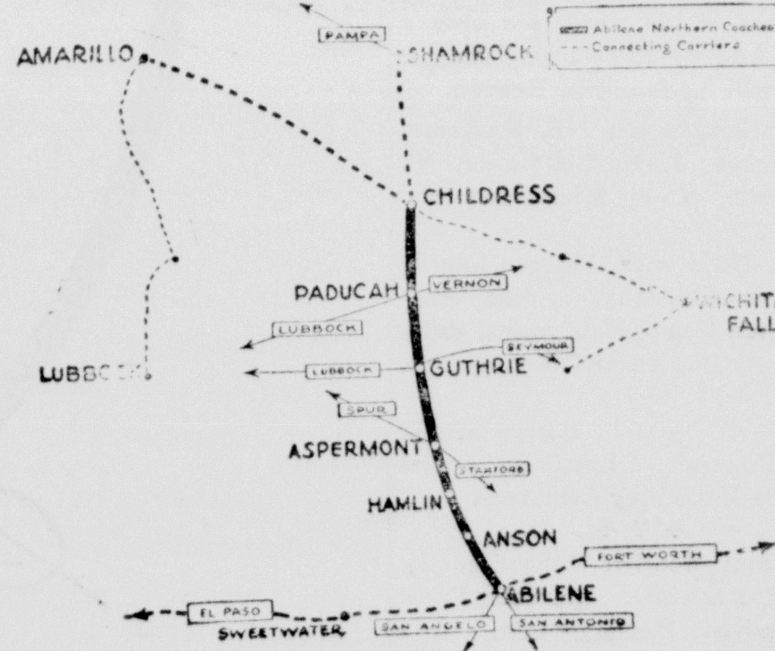

Coconut Snow Pudding
1 tablespoon granulated gelatin; 3/4 cup cold water; 1 cup boiling water; 1 cup sugar; 1/4 teaspoon salt; 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla; 3/4 cup shredded coconut; 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten.

Soak gelatin in cold water 5 minutes, add boiling water, and stir until dissolved. Add sugar, salt, and vanilla. Chill until cold and syrupy. Place in bowl of cracked ice or ice water and whip with rotary egg-beater until fluffy and thick like whipped cream. Fold in coconut and egg whites. Turn into shallow pan 8 x 8 inches. Chill until firm. Cut in 1-inch cubes. Pile cubes in sherbet glasses. Serve with lemon sauce. Serves 10.

McCAULEY NEWS

DEATH CLAIMED MRS. HENDON OF McCAULEY

The death angel visited the McCauley community and took Mrs. J. M. (Mother) Hendon, Sunday afternoon, about 3:30 o'clock, November 3, 1935.

Mary Ellen Perdue, was born in the State of Alabama, September 14, 1856, and came to Texas at the age of three, with her parents. She was united in marriage to J. M. Hendon, in July, 1876, who preceded her in death six years ago. To this union were six children, three boys and three girls, of whom all are living, except two, who died several years ago. The children who survive are Mrs. Hopkins and Lee Hendon, of McCauley, Mrs. Emma Blair of Merkel and Will Hendon of Austin. She is survived by 24 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren, other relatives and a host of friends.

Funeral services were held at the McCauley Baptist Church, Wednesday afternoon, by Bro. Hardesty.

Mrs. Hendon was converted at the age of 42 and joined the Baptist Church. She moved to McCauley, with her family, in 1903, and everyone called her "Mother" Hendon, as she was so kind and good to all.

Our community feels a great loss as well as the Church, in the going of Mother Hendon. Never was anything spoken about her except kind words. Her life was spent in service to her community. Indeed, she was a doer of the word; not only a hearer. And we all feel sure Mother Hendon will be found in Heaven.

Pallbearers were: B. F. Kemp, Louis Rector, J. M. Griffin, J. W. Hendrickson, S. E. Miers and Mr. Braner.

Flower Girls were Misses Fannie and Annie Galloway, Lorena Reynolds, Neida Kemp, Nola Akins, Ruby and Maggie Rhoton and Mrs. Martha Bridges.

The body was in charge of the Maples Funeral Directors. Burial was in the McCauley Cemetery.

Cold rainy weather stopped cotton picking for a while. Old Jack Frost paid us a visit Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Tience Miers are the proud parents of a little daughter, arrived Thursday, October 31, 1935. She was given the name, Patsy Ann.

The school was sorry to lose Mr. Wilhoit as the principal. He has a higher position in Wichita County.

Mr. Courtney, the Seventh Grade teacher, was promoted to the position of High School Principal and Mr. S. Hart, from Canyon, Texas, was elected as seventh grade teacher.

On Hallowe'en night the Seventh grade enjoyed a party in the home of Miss Frances Davison. The following were present, Katy Akins, Mattie Mae and Ola Faye Faulkenberry, Pauline Maberry, Doyle Blackwell, Murrell Rushing, Stanley Jackson and the sponsor, Mrs. E. C. McCcloud.

The Senior basketball girls gave a Hallowe'en party at the home of E. H. Smith, Thursday night, and an Auction Sale was held and the proceeds will be used for the girls to attend a basketball tournament at Jayton next week end.
